RESCUE REPORT

Sleigh bells ring ... Ho Ho Ho! The rescues are merrily barking at Santa's deer in my meadow!!
Ah, tis the season.

We had 2 new rescues and both have quickly been placed in just super homes!

Danny- 8 yrs. male, his lady owner had died unexpectedly. He loved to run the fields beside her on horseback riding, and also had a reputation for chasing chickens. Well we laughed, he won't be going to any chicken homes, and how many folks keep chickens nowadays? Yep, his new lady owner has a flock :) She took him out to meet the roosters and they exchanged looks and feathers were everywhere- they flew up to the rafters. Guess they now know what a chicken chasing Irish Setter looks like :))) She is OK with it, says they will learn to be together.

This lovely lady also has 3 horses and 2 small donkeys (who do not like dogs and Danny was actually backing away from them- interesting the vibes animals give each other), swans, ducks, cats ,2 female cocker spaniels, have I forgotten anyone ? Yes, 2 cockatiels in a large cage in the kitchen. We sat in the kitchen to chat and Danny was kissing this lady and giving me the eye, with a "This is it! Bye Pat!" look. He was back home again. It's lovely how things work out.

Rescue #2 Murphy 5 yrs. male- went to a bachelor fellow who just put his 12 year Irish down. He takes his dog everywhere, even to work, and was really suffering the emptiness. Murphy checked out his house, found the toy basket and after a few dog biscuits was doing a sit to learn a High 5 shake!

Thank you to Rusty and Tina Laybouné for their generous donation to the rescue fund.

For those of you donating this holiday season, We can accept contributions with pay pal this year also.

Don't forget to send a card to those who can't join us, I just received Lorraine Smiths new address-

Bradley Bay Health Center
C/O Lorraine Smith Room C 4
605 Bradley Road
Cleveland, Ohio 44140

I know she would love to hear from all of you.

The rescue booth will again be at the 4 Cleveland IX shows- Dec. 15-18. Please stop by and bring your Irish Setter, meet the public and enjoy some time talking dogs with folks.

Happy Holidays to everyone, 2 legged and 4. And may the snows wait til after the Cleveland shows and your rescue lady will be very happy :))

Sir Louie Lindeman

Louie earned his Rally Advanced Excellent Title and his TDIA Therapy Dog International Title with 50+ volunteer visits. Way to go Louie!

Bits and Pieces

I hope everyone had a nice Thanksgiving. Time sure flies! We are rapidly approaching Christmas and I am beginning to resent all these people who tell me the presents are already wrapped. I have bought a couple of things, but I have my doggy presents bought for the Kennel Club Christmas Parties. Many people wouldn't understand that, but all my doggy friends do.

I am not sure that this issue of the newsletter will be out before our December 3rd Christmas Potluck Party so I am not going to dwell on that too much as I will send out the reminder flyer instead.

I called Marianne Downing to see if she would like to come to the party, but she will be in AZ for a week at that time. She is also going to a filming of the Ellen DeGeneres Show. I will have to make a point of finding out when that will be aired. Marianne sure does travel! She was out West for Christmas.

There are more new and upcoming Junior handlers coming into the world. Randy and Sue Wolf welcomed a new granddaughter, Madeline a few months back, and more recently Sue Musil was presented with a new grand son, Adam. That will keep them busy, and I understand Randy had knee surgery too, which may keep him for chasing Madeline around! We hope all is well for all of you.

Pat Jesson visited Lorraine Smith at the Bradley Bay facility, along with Lorraine's son. She is doing well. Shari and I plan on taking a redheaded friend over to visit before Christmas. We may even take Maggie, our Golden, if she is still welcome. When Shirley and I went awhile back, Maggie was trying to confiscate Lorraine's stuffed dog. She was bound and determined to take it home.

If anyone has any judge's suggestions, conformation, obedience and sweeps let me know soon. The Summer shows will be here before you know it. Look how fast Christmas has arrived, and it seems the August shows just got over! Time sure has a way of going faster every year.

Many of you already know that this is Lorain County Kennel Club's last year at the Crown Classic in Cleveland. Due to financial issues, the club has decided to go back to back on their own grounds in August. Hopefully, this should mean four majors for Irish Setters, and should help draw. This would change our obedience to Friday, as LCKC will have obedience on Saturday. The other reason for holding obedience on Friday, is to allow for more entries as we will be limited to 100 entries on Saturday as there will be Irish judging twice that day. We are holding what is called a concurrent specialty on Saturday. It will still be an independent Specialty. If this does not work, we can hold an independent again in 2012, and there will be no Irish Setter judging at LCKC on Saturday. We thought we would try the four shows first. The Irish Setters will be judged under the same tent throughout the show. Our raffle will be held on Saturday as usual, and we will still have the hospitalities as in the past. Hope it all goes well! Any ideas? Let me know!

CLUB NOTES: DUES ARE DUE BY DECEMBER 30TH. $15.00 PER PERSON, $25.00 PER COUPLE. LOOK FOR THE TITLE APPLICATION AND ANNUAL AWARDS FORMS WITH DEADLINES. BANQUET IS AT TONY K'S ON FEBRUARY 18TH. I AM ATTACHING THE FLYER IN THIS ISSUE SO YOU HAVE TIME AS THERE WILL BE NO JANUARY MEETING OR NEWSLETTER. PLEASE REMIT DUES TO RON CAFFO, MADE PAYABLE TO ISCO.

See you Saturday!
