Bits and Pieces

I cannot believe the specialties are over. It seems that all the time and effort that go into these shows compared to the time that they actually take place, is very lopsided. The show was a successful event if you can judge it by the comment, and even thank you notes. Unfortunately, it was not a financial success. I should have raised the entry fee instead of keeping it the same. After looking at the Michigan Specialty, our entries were $4.00 less. This would have made a huge difference. We will look into other areas in which to cut expenses for next year, with obedience being one of them. Our obedience entries were down, and the cost up. Our trophies, which received many nice comments, came in under budget due to my shopping expertise. I feel we cannot cut our hospitality, as Mary and Donna did a beautiful job, and their costs are very reasonable. The raffle was great, and a big thank you to Diane Spohn, who gathered many items and organized it, and to Victoria and Mickey Lindeman for taking over, not only the day of the raffle, but did the work on the posters and labels. Due to Diane's recent surgery, she was unable to actually "work her butt off" as usual. Thanks to Margie Beebe for chairing the obedience, and to her stewards George Wilson, Kathy Flynn, and Shari Caffo, who also had recent surgery. Thanks to Pam for assisting with judge pick up, especially for the late night run on Friday night. Thanks to all who helped in any way, and especially to Shirley Boyer, who was there for anything that needed to be done. She was hard to keep up with! Larry and I appreciate all of your efforts. There will be a discussion at the September 12th meeting on how to make our Specialty a financial success. This was the first year in the past few that we did not make money, and I am not ready to give up. I can thank the members who offer their continued financial support, as buying trophies for two shows costs twice as much! I think I better mention Ron, who I do not see much of during the show week. You cannot imagine the hours he puts in preparing the grounds for all three events, but I must say it is nice to have it over within one weekend instead of two.

Speaking of the September meeting, our meeting has been moved forward one week to September 12th. Our regular meeting date falls on our field trial weekend for which Jeannie has sent out the information. This will be the last trial at Kildeer Plains, and we will be using the new grounds at the Spring Trial. There are a few things to work out for the new grounds, but Jeannie and Brian are working out the details. It is very sad to lose the Kildeer location, but we have to comply with the state's wishes.

Thanks to all of you who expressed concern over Shari's recent health issues. She is out of the hospital, and hopefully things will go well for her now. Both she and Diane are on the road to complete recovery from the recent, similar surgeries. If anyone knows of anyone who needs a card for "sunshine", please let me know. Sometimes when I find out, it is well beyond the time to acknowledge it. I sometimes even send a card when they are doing great. I have to tell you about a funny incident from last month. Shirley and I correspond quite often by email. I received this email stating that she was still waiting to hear of her BIL biopsy reports. I of course mention her in my "thoughts and caring list", wondering if she had told me about this recent biopsy, and trying to figure out what a BIL biopsy even is, as I had never really heard it before. I am thinking that she had to mention it to me, and I chalked it up to the "old age memory thing". I get an email from Shirley, stating she was worried, as she thought she was doing fairly well, and was surprised to see her name mentioned on the list. We had a chuckle over "BIL", as she must have thought I was up on my cyberspace lingo! BIL stands for brother-in-law, and we hope things worked out for him too.

See you all SEPTEMBER 12TH!!! NOTE MEETING DATE CHANGE!

Jackie

Special thanks to Diane Spohn for typing the Specialty results and posting them on the website!
